

DAP - Setting off on the Right Foot

Design Assist Partners have taken out top honours in the largest competition of its kind in Australia. The RMIT Business Plan Competition is well supported by government and industry alike, and attracts large prizes in terms of cash and in-kind sponsorship.

Design Assist Partners have taken out top honours in the largest competition of its kind in Australia. The RMIT Business Plan Competition is well supported by government and industry alike, and attracts large prizes in terms of cash and in-kind sponsorship.

Watched by the Lord Mayor John So, the Vice-Chancellor of RMIT University Professor Margaret Gardner presented DAP as the First Prize Winner at a ceremony staged at Storey Hall.

The four month long judging process went through three stringent stages, each inspected and ranked by a large contingent of experts, including the panel from the Sensis Small Business Grant, The City of Melbourne, Department of Innovation & Regional Development and various industry sponsors.
